Last Updated: January 1, 2025

Developer: Mecostech

1. Introduction

CubixPro ('the App') is developed and owned by Mecostech. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect personal data processed through the application in accordance with GDPR, KVKK, and other applicable regulations.

2. Data We Collect

CubixPro collects the following categories of data:

Device and Usage Data: device model, OS version, app version, connection type.

Measurement Data: LiDAR/camera data and optional saved images.

Optional Data Inputs: barcode data, weight data, shared data via TCP/IP.

3. How We Use the Data

Data is used to enable measurements, calibration, and performance improvement. Mecostech does not sell, rent, or share personal data for marketing purposes.

4. Data Sharing and Transmission

All data remains on the user's device unless explicitly shared via TCP/IP or similar connections.

No automatic uploads occur without consent.

5. Data Retention and Deletion

Data is stored locally until deleted by the user. Mecostech does not retain data on its servers.

6. Data Security

We use encryption, local storage, and secure access permissions to protect user data.

7. User Rights under GDPR and KVKK

Users can request access, correction, deletion, restriction, or data portability by contacting Mecostech at privacy@mecostech.com.

8. Third-Party Services

CubixPro does not use third-party advertising or tracking SDKs. Any future integrations will include clear disclosure.

9. Children's Privacy

CubixPro is not intended for users under 16. No personal data is knowingly collected from minors.

10. International Data Transfers

CubixPro does not transfer data outside the device unless shared by the user.

11. Changes to This Policy

Mecostech may update this policy periodically. Users will be notified of major changes where required by law.
